CHAPTER 5

Wednesday 11 November 2026

Eight words + eight sentences

CHAPTER 6

Wednesday 25 November 2026

Estimated — two weeks after Ch. 5

INSIDE

- A four-day plan for Chapter 5, and a twelve-step plan for Chapter 6
- Word lists with the tricky letters in orange
- Look–Cover–Write–Check, missing letters, careful-eyes spelling
- Sentence copy sheets and blank dictation paper
- A dictation script with a marking sheet for you

Built from the school dictation sheets, pages 2 and 3.

HOW TO USE THIS PACK

The four days before Wednesday

Ten to twelve minutes a day. Same time, same table, pencil and eraser.

Day	When	What to do	Done
1	Sat 7 Nov	Meet the words. Say each one three times. Point at the orange letters. Then read the eight sentences aloud together — no writing yet.	☐
2	Sun 8 Nov	Look–Cover–Write–Check all eight words. Then copy sentences 1–4 on the sentence sheet.	☐
3	Mon 9 Nov	Practice test: words 1–8, then sentences 1–4. Mark it together. Circle every miss in red.	☐
4	Tue 10 Nov	Only the misses, three times each. Then one more full test. Stop while he is still winning.	☐
★	Wed 11 Nov	Dictation day. Five-minute warm-up at breakfast: read the eight words, read the sentences once. Then go and be proud.

THE FOUR STEPS THAT DO THE WORK

Say it. He says the word out loud before he writes. Dictation is hearing first, letters second.

Cover it. Hand over the word. If he can still see it, he is copying, not remembering.

Write it. One clean try. No going back to fix letters halfway through.

Check it. Compare with the word, letter by letter. Tick or cross honestly.

Three things that help more than extra practice

- Read the sentence aloud together the night before. Half the marks go on words that were never said out loud.
- Punctuation is free marks. Capital at the start, full stop at the end, and "?" for questions. He can check these himself.
- Never practise a tired child. Twelve good minutes beats forty bad ones.

CHAPTER 6

The two weeks after

Chapter 6 is two weeks behind Chapter 5, so there is room to go slowly.

Day	When	What to do	Done
1	Sat 14 Nov	Meet the Chapter 6 words. Eight minutes only — keep it light.	☐
2	Sun 15 Nov	Rest, or one quick Chapter 5 review.	☐
3	Mon 16 Nov	Look–Cover–Write–Check words 1–4. Read all eight sentences aloud.	☐
4	Tue 17 Nov	Look–Cover–Write–Check words 5–8. Copy sentences 1–4.	☐
5	Wed 18 Nov	Missing-letter sheet. Copy sentences 5–8.	☐
6	Thu 19 Nov	Practice test: words 1–8 and sentences 1–4.	☐
7	Fri 20 Nov	Mark it. Circle the misses. Write each miss three times.	☐
8	Sat 21 Nov	Practice test two: full paper, words and all sentences.	☐
9	Sun 22 Nov	Rest day. No English.	☐
10	Mon 23 Nov	The misses only — three times each, said out loud.	☐
11	Tue 24 Nov	Final full test. Confidence round — finish on a win.	☐
★	Wed 25 Nov	Dictation day. Same warm-up as Chapter 5.

Chapter 6 is harder — start light

- He has never seen these eight words. Day 1 is only looking and saying, no writing.
- The sentences bring back words from Chapter 5 — "legs", "long", "have". Praise him when he spots them.
- Two full practice tests, five days apart, beat five rushed ones.

CHAPTER 5 · VOCABULARY

The eight words

Read it. Say it. Spell it out loud. Then write it.

1. an ear an · ear ea says "ee"	2. thin thin th — tongue between the teeth
3. a leg a · leg short "e", like bed	4. tall tall two l's at the end
5. an arm an · arm ar says "ah"	6. a mouth a · mouth ou says "ow"
7. a foot a · foot two o's, short "u" sound	8. shoulders shoul · ders the hard one: sh + oul + ders

The orange letters are the tricky bit. If he can spell the orange part, the rest of the word usually follows.

Look – Cover – Write – Check

Look at the word. Cover it with a hand. Write it. Uncover and check. Tick or cross.

Look	Write 1	Write 2	Write 3
1. an ear

☐ 5. He is very fat.

☐ 6. He is a naughty boy.

☐ 7. He does not have a small nose.

☐ 8. You are a good boy!

Marking

- Hong Kong schools usually give one mark per word. A capital letter and an end mark are marks too.
- Be strict on spelling and kind on handwriting. A wobbly letter that is the right letter is not a miss.
- Mark it straight away, then write every miss out three times and test it again the next day.
- Stop after about twelve minutes. Tired dictation practice teaches mistakes.
